

Francesco Andreatta

University of Udine

Department of Chemistry, Physics and Environment

Francesco Andreatta graduated in Materials Engineering at the University of Trento (Italy) in 1999. He obtained his PhD in 2003 at Delft University of Technology (The Netherlands) – Department of Materials Science and Engineering in the group Corrosion Technology and Electrochemistry (CTE) after being employed as PhD researcher from 1999 to 2003 at the Netherlands Institute for Metals Research (NIMR). In 2003/2004 he was Post doc researcher at Delft University of Technology (The Netherlands) – Department of Materials Science and Engineering in the group Light Metal Processing (LMP). From 2004 to 2009 he was employed as contract researcher at the University of Udine (Italy). Since 01.09.2009 he is researcher (ING-IND/22) at the Department of Chemistry, Physics and Environment.